SLOAN CRITICISED

NOT WINNING ENOUGH RACES TO PLEASE SMALL-FRY BETTORS.

A Veterinary Surgeon Thinks the Jockey Responsible for Holocauste's Accident-The American's "Wins."

[Copyright, 1899, by the Associated Press.] LONDON, June 3 .- The fickleness of popularity is beginning to demonstrate itself in the case of Tod Sloan, whose recent failures have wrecked many of his supporters. Dwyers, have pocketed their losses like true sportsmen and have retired to America. It is the small fry who, while Sloan succeeded. reaped a harvest and are now losing, cannot find words enough to denounce him. One of these, on returning from Epsom last night, filled the corridors of the Hotel Cecil with rantings against the honesty of Sloan's Oaks failure, until the hotel officials had to remonstrate. Col. Tom Ochiltree declares himself a heavy loser and says Sloan is a great jockey for five furlongs, but when every one expects him to win and backs him heavily, he is left at the post, and that in no other way could he have lost the

In spite of the clatter of disgruntled losers. Sloan maintains hopes of ultimate success this season. Of 103 mounts he has now won 37, while Otto Madden heads the list with 50 winnings out of 261 mounts, and Roates has 43 wins out of 201 mounts, se Sloan has won 35 per cent. of his races and the best English jockey has only won I

The sensational collapse of Holocauste whose death represented a loss of $30,000 to his owner, was an intense disappointment to the large French contingent which came over to see what was confidently predicted to be a victory for their representative. The Paris papers are furious and blame the Epsom authorities for leaving the course in a disgracefully dirty condition, for it is gravely declared Holocauste slipped on a piece of orange peeling. There was a great rush for relics after Holocauste was slaughtered. His ears, mane, tail and hoofs were cut off, and the gypsies did a big trade in selling bunches of hair cut from their own gray horses and palmed off as genuine Holocauste souvenirs. A well-known veterinary surgeon, Marcus Stevenson, who witnessed the accident, attributes, in a published interview, the disaster to Sloan's method of riding, declaring if the jockey had been sitting in his saddle, instead of crouching on the horse's reck, he could have helped Holocauste to recover, after a first mistake, when he wrenched his ankle. Holocauste, he adds, was then going very well, and fifty yards further Flying Fox was only a neck ahead, when Holocauste stumbled again and broke his pastern. Sloan, according to Stevenson has no control over his mounts, and his method extorts speed by frightening his mount, as Johnny Gilpin did. Holocauste's owner, M. J. de Bremond certainly does not share the foregoing views. He said emphatically to a reporter "Sloan's jockeyship was consummate, and it is acknowledged on all sides he had the race well within his grasp when the acci-dent occurred. It was, indeed, ill luck to have victory snatched from me. Moreover, in Holocauste I lost a pet. The sympathy expressed on all sides will be extended to sloan, whose disappointment is second only At the first day of the Kempton Park first summer meeting to-day, the Sunbury handicap plate of 200 sovereigns was won by J. P. Peard's three-year-old chestnut colt, Merry Methodist. Tod Sloan rode Sir Waldie Griffith's six-year-old bay horse, Eileen Aigas, and was unplaced. The betting was 25 to 3 against Eileen Aigas. The betting was Il to 4 against Elleen Algas.

May Hempstead Won Easily. CINCINNATI, June 3 .- The expected great battle between the queens of the turf, May Hempstead and Rush, in the Latonia Oaks to-day, fizzled out into a running victory for the former. Rush did not appear to be at her best going to the post, and after setting a merry pace for five eighths of a mile she faltered and the filly soon passed her. May Hempstead then took up the running and was never in trouble, win ning under restraint by five lengths. E. S. Gardner's filly Freak held down second position all the way and got the place easily from Preliminary, who beat Souchon two lengths for the third money. May Hemp-stead was favorite at odds of 9 to 10, and was heavily played by her owners, Headley & Norton. Rush opened at even money, but was as good as 6 to 5 at the close. The net value of the Oaks was $4,390. Over $,000

It looked as if there really were no reason why the Hoosier unfortunates should not have gobbled the persimmon yesterday afternoon, but as the gentleman remarked who severed his wife's neck with a broadax, thereby interrupting her in the midst of one of her most eloquent sermons on the in iquity of tracking mud in the kitchen, "It had to be." It is hard to say whether the onus of the result should lie on young Mr. nation was enough, in the eyes of Mannassau, to be called one of the new 1899-model balks, and Andrews, who had secured third base by his own good bat, was walked in home. There is a story of a Hebrew gentleman who took a bet of 300 to 1 that he wasn't dead, not because he had any hopes of winning, but because the odds were too big to let go for a mere dollar. The chances of Nance getting the ball right in to the exact spot where the catcher ought to be were not much smaller than that, but, it was "done did." and that's what "done done it." Willie Bill Hutchinson, for so long too serve the ensuing year and for any other busi- good for the twenty-five-fifty circuit, was also entitled to some of the glory, though his marksmanship was almost as scattery as that of the proud Hidalgos from whom we rescued the Filipinos. No less than an even haif dozen times did the lloosiers hit nothing but the bench. The game was opened by Hutchinson hitting Hogriever back of the ear with the ball with such force that George was retired from the proceedings for the rest of the Indiana-Illinois League team at this place day. Flynn was put in his place and dropped is a thing of the past. President Schmidt the first ball that came his way. Neither side scored, however, in the first. Indianapolis took one in the second on a steal by franchise on the ball park, and thus holds Newton, which enabled Allen to score. Two more were gained in the fourth on Beville's hit, Stewart's sacrifice, Allen's base on balls and Hickey's life from Andrews, who failed to put Allen out at second. A base on balls to Flynn forced Beville in. Sharrott was hit by pitcher and Allen came in. Another run was secured by Stewart on a hit in the eighth, followed by hits by Allen and His big backers, like Riley Grannan and the Hickey. It was in this inning that Motz was at the home plate by Nance's long throw. The last run of the game was made in the ninth, by Flynn. He scored a hit, advanced on a fly to right by Sharrott, a hit by McFarland and a fly to right by Motz. With one needed to tie and McFarland on third Beville came to bat and sent out a moderate dimensions, that was nailed Nance and the deed was done.

Abbattichio scored in the second for the Millers on a base hit. Smith's sacrifice, Zearfoss's infield out and Sharrott's fumble. Three more were picked up in the third, in which that unfortunate balk occurred, forcing Andrews in from third. Two bases on balls and a passed ball by Beville also contributed. Andrews came in for another three-sacker in the eighth and scored on Allen's misplay, while Smith took one in the ninth on a base on balls, a wild throw from short, Hutchinson's sacrifice and Da- | south. The crowd was headed by the Crawvis's fly to McFarland. Break the news to fordsville band, and marched to the grounds

Bad Nickel Saturday. Played. Won. Lost. Pc. Anderson .... Terre Haute ......23 Muncie .... Kokomo ......24 Wabash ...... 23 Look at This, Will You!

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., June 3 .- The worst defeat suffered by any team in the Indiana-Illinois League was that sustained this afternoon by Anderson at the hands of Wabash. Fisher was put in to pitch by the visitors, and in the first inning when he had been batted all over creation by the much abused Wabash infants, he was taken off the slab and Nonemacher, who pitched yesterday, was substituted. Before the side was retired he was hit for three more runs, making a total of eleven in the inning. The Wabash team played a good fielding game, but after the score had run up they grew careless, though Anderson was able to get only two runs in eight innings, when the game was called for the visitors to make their train. The Wabash team has earned its reputation as the heaviest hitting club in the league. Willis was very effective, the runs made by Anderson being on trifling fielding errors. An excursion will probably be run from Wabash to Danville, Ill., where the Wabash team plays the league leaders to-morrow.

Lawson was arrested for assault and battery and to-night all hands were in Mayor Armstrong's court. Lawson says it is a conspiracy to bleed him. He employed the law firm of Blacklidge, Shirley & Wolf to defend him, and also to file injunction proceedings restraining the ague from taking away his franchise. The Muncie team played here to-day and won.

Batteries-Henley and McGuire; Bruner Lawson was convicted of provoke and assault, costing him $38, to-night. He will not give up his Muncle team without a hard fight. It is said he has instituted a system of $3 fines every time one of the players makes an error, and that the team would like another manager.

Terre Haute Team Is "Busted."

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 3.-There was no game with Danville to-day and the rather blundered in withdrawing the franchise from Manager Hill, who holds the the key to the situation here. A stock company is ready to take the team, but Hill, will not give up the park and the players will endeavor to sign with some other club President Schmidt says to-night that the franchise will be turned over to Mattoon next week if Hill refuses to let the local company have the park and continue the Terre Haute club in the league. This com-plication arose out of the meeting of the magnates held here yesterday, when it was decided to discipline Hill, of Terre Haute, and Lawson, of Muncie.

State University Team Shorn of Its Honors on Neutral Ground. pecial to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., June 3 .- One of the prettlest and hardest fought games ever witnessed in this section of the country was played here this afternoon between Indiana University, of Bloomington, and De Pauw, of Greencastle, to settle the collegiate championship. Fully twelve hundred supporters of the two teams arrived shortly after noon on a special train from the cheering wildly for their favorites. Both teams were tied for the championship of the State, and this city was picked as a neutral point to play off the tie. The game was full of ginger from start to finish and abounded in brilliant plays. Longwell, of De Pauw, still maintained his reputation for "dirty ball." Both pitchers were in fine form and received gilt-edge support. The features were the fine work of both center fielders. The score:

POWERS WAS THE STAR IN THE IN-TERCOLLEGIATE EVENTS.

Chicago University Took First Honors, with 46 Points to 33 for the Hoosiers.

CHICAGO, June 3.-The annual field games of the Western Intercollegiate Association took place to-day. The University of Chicago team won a rather easy victory, a total of 46 points being placed to its credit. Notre Dame College was second with 35 points, chiefly through the efforts of its captain, J. F. Powers. Michigan was third with 27. The Wisconsin team failed to live scoring but 14 points. Other colleges receiving credit marks were: Illinois, 9; Drake University, Iowa, 5; University of Iowa, 4; Grinnell College, Iowa, 3; Northwestern University, 3. The meet took place on Ravenswood field, midway between Chicago and Evanston. Heavy rains of last night had softened the oval cinder path on the back stretch, but the straight-away was in good condition and the large crowd of rooters present saw some of the prettiest sport ever witnessed in a Western meet.

The pre-eminent feature of the day's programme was the beautiful work of Powers, of Notre Dame, in the field events. Twentyone of the 33 points chalked up for his col lege were due to his work, the brawny captain securing clean firsts in the shot-put, the discus throw, dividing first honors in the high jump and pole vault and securing second place in the broad jump. Three Western intercollegiate records were broken during the afternoon. Two of these Powers placed to his credit, in the shot-put and in the high jump, Louis, of Iowa College, dividing the honors with him in that event. In the broad jump, in which Powers secured second place, he was only beaten out by the stender margin of a half-inch.

A fight, which for an instant threatened to develop into a battle royal between a hundred or two of infuriated college men, took place at the finish of the half-mile run. Immediately after the start cries of foul were raised against the Michigan men who, it was claimed, were deliberately pocketing Moloney, the Chicago contestant. The cries increased to a perfect uproar as the men came into the stretch, but Moloney managed to get through and won out by a desaged to get through and won out by a desperate spurt. As the Michigan men left the track and started to their quarters one excited spectator swung at Barrett, and in a second the bicycle track incline and part of the field at its edge was a mass of shouting, fighting men. Policemen jumped into the crowd, however, and hustled the original offender out of the grounds.

The heat was very intense and many of the men, especially in the long runs, were much exhausted at the finish. McLean, of Michigan, who won in the final of the 120-

Michigan, who won in the final of the 120-yard hurdles, fell in a dead faint after cross-ing the line and did not regain consciousness for fully fifteen minutes. Summary:
